Why you should be a sponsor

Hosted by Radius Financial Education (Radius), Canada's leading producer of educational and professional development conferences for the financial services industry for the past 20 years, the first annual Toronto ESG Conference provides sponsors an excellent opportunity for quality interaction with a highly defined audience of credentialed advisors, investment professionals, sustainability professionals and corporate responsibility and green economy practitioners within the financial services industry.

Agenda session topics and speakers are carefully selected to deliver expert analysis and commentary on the latest innovations and trends in the ESG/SRI sector, both in Canada and globally.
